Credits

The Family Talk e-learning resource was prepared by Emerging Minds (previously known as the Australian Infant, Child, Adolescent and Family Mental Health Association (AICAFMHA) as part of the Children of Parents with a Mental Illness (COPMI) national initiative which was funded by the Australian Government.

Content development

The development of the Family Talk e-learning resource was a collaborative effort with many people contributing their knowledge, skills, and experience to the project. Emerging Minds wishes to acknowledge the individuals, groups and organisations for their support and contribution to the content of this resource. Without your input, expertise and willingness to share, this resource could not have been developed. Thank you.

Case studies

The dramatised families in this resource are fictional and the family members are portrayed by actors. However their situation and their circumstances are based on the real experiences of many families where a parent experiences a mental health problem or disorder.
